Head Coach Lynn Bria

9th Season at Stetson (151-107)
22nd Season Overall (304-320)
University of Charleston, 1990 (B.S.)
West Virginia University, 1992 (M.S.)

A three-time Atlantic Sun Conference champion as a head coach, Lynn Bria is in her ninth season at the helm of Stetson women's basketball program.

Over the past six seasons Bria has turned the Hatters into a formidable force in the Atlantic Sun. She has guided the Hatters to two conference titles, two NCAA Tournament appearances, three WNIT bids, and six consecutive 20+ win seasons. In fact, Stetson is just one of three schools in the state of Florida to post as many as 137 victories since the start of the 2010-11 season.

In 2015-16, Stetson won 20 games for the sixth year in a row despite not having any seniors on the squad. The Hatters also qualified for the WBI and earned their second NCAA postseason victory with a 89-54 win over McNeese State.

Brianti Saunders set the school single-game record with 40 points vs. Georgia State, and came within 11 points of tying the single-season scoring record. She was named first team all-conference, while Breana Bey was named second team all-conference and A-Sun Tri-Newcomer of the Year. McKenna Beach was named A-Sun Freshman of the Year.

Stetson posted its fifth straight 20-win season in 2014-15, compiling a 23-8 record overall. The Hatters won 11 non-conference games for the time ever, and the 23 wins overall tied for the third-winningest season in school history. Three Hatters were named First-Team All-Conference for the second year in a row, including the league's Defensive Player of the Year Amber Porter.

In 2013-14 and for the third year in a row, the Hatters set a school-record for most victories in a single-season with 27. Stetson also won a school-record 16 conference games and won a school-record 16 consecutive contests during the regular season. The Hatters also earned their second-ever bid to the WNIT and the program's first-ever NCAA postseason victory, a 70-63 win at Miami on Mar. 20. Stetson had three players named First Team All-Conference, including A-Sun Freshman of the Year Amber Porter.

The 2012-13 season was one for the history books as the Hatters set numerous team records for success and captured their second A-Sun title in the past three seasons. Bria helped lead the Hatters to a school-record 24 wins overall, a 12-1 record at home, a school-record 14 wins in conference play, and winning streaks of 11 straight overall and 16 in a row at home. In the A-Sun Championship game, Stetson rallied from a 15-point second-half deficit to defeat top-seeded and previously undefeated FGCU 70-64, and then earned their highest-ever NCAA Tournament seed (14) and an appearance in the Columbus, Ohio regional against UCLA.

In 2011-12, the Hatters won a school record 23 games and advanced to the postseason for the second year in a row, participating in the WNIT for the first time in school history. Three players earned All-Atlantic Sun honors including A-Sun Player of the Year and All-Tournament Team selection Victoria McGowan, who led the nation with three triple-doubles. Also honored were Second Team All-Atlantic Sun forward Sasha Sims and A-Sun All-Freshman Team forward Cherisse Burris.

Bria's 2010-11 Hatters won 20 games for the first time in 10 seasons, captured their third Atlantic Sun Conference tournament championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in school history and first time since 2005.

Stetson's turnaround under Bria from 6-24 to 20-13 (+12.5 games) was the second largest improvement in NCAA Division I women's basketball. Honors that came to members of the team included A-Sun Tournament MVP (Victoria McGowan), A-Sun All-Tournament Team (Tierra Brown, Sasha Sims), Second Team All-Atlantic Sun (McGowan), A-Sun All-Freshman Team (Sims), A-Sun Player of the Week (Natasha Graboski) and A-Sun Newcomer of the Week (McGowan twice, Sims). Graboski went on to sign a professional contract with Alexandria of Romania's Division 1 League in the summer of 2011.

In 2009-10 Bria led the Hatters to their seventh consecutive A-Sun tournament appearance. The highlight of the season was a December 16 victory over USC Upstate, which would go on to finish as a 20-win team, that led to forward Jessica Conner receiving A-Sun Player of the Week honors.

In her first season at Stetson, Bria coached the Hatters to eight victories, including the program's first victory against an RPI Top 100 opponent (FGCU, 12/4/08) in the 10 years since online data has been kept. She also made an immediate impact on the recruiting trail as her 2009-10 incoming class was ranked by Michael T. White's noted scouting service All-Star Girls Report as the best in the Atlantic Sun Conference and in the top third of all NCAA Division I teams.

Bria has coached women's basketball for 24 years with 18 seasons of Division I head coaching experience to her credit at UCF, Ohio University and Stetson. In addition to coaching, she has extensive classroom experience at the university level and is committed to developing young women both athletically and academically.

Prior to joining the Hatters, Bria spent the previous two seasons as an assistant coach at top-level programs West Virginia (2006-07) and most recently the University of Miami. Her excellent recruiting skills led to the Hurricanes signing a Top 25 incoming class according to recruiting experts at HoopGurlz.com. With WVU, Bria served as recruiting coordinator in addition to her on-court coaching duties. Her leadership helped the Mountaineers achieve one of their best seasons in school history, which featured an at-large bid to and second round appearance in the NCAA Tournament as well as the second-largest turnaround in W-L record in Big East Conference history (15-16 to 21-11 overall and from 4-12 to 11-5 in Big East games).

From 1999-2006, Bria was the head coach at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio. She is second all-time in career wins at Ohio and was the first coach in Bobcats history to sign a recruit that would become Mid-American Conference Freshman of the Year. Bria's first-year players earned MAC All-Freshman honors three consecutive years; only seven other players in the 20+ year history of the program had done that. In addition to coaching, Bria also taught a class in the Education department.

Prior to taking the position at Ohio, Bria led old Stetson nemesis UCF for three seasons from 1996-99. Her final Golden Knights team in 1998-99 was the TAAC (now Atlantic Sun) regular season and tournament champions and appeared in the NCAA Tournament. For her efforts, Bria was named the 1998-99 TAAC Coach of the Year. In just three seasons, she ranked second in career wins at UCF and was 6-1 against the Hatters.

Bria's first head coaching position came at Division II Texas Woman's University in Denton, Texas for three seasons from 1993-96. At the age of 24, Bria was the fourth-youngest head coach in the country when she was hired. She coached the team, coordinated fundraising and taught in the Kinesiology department in addition to serving on the NCAA Division II Tournament regional selection committee. Her Pioneer squads won more games each year of her tenure than the one previously.

Her first three years out of college at the University of Charleston (W. Va.) were spent on the coaching staffs at Marshall (where she obtained her Master's degree in 1992) and Radford, where she helped lead the Highlanders to the Big South regular season and tournament titles in 1992-93.

A standout performer for the Charleston Golden Eagles, the Class of 1990 graduate was inducted into her alma mater's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003. She scored 1,146 points in her career, averaging 10.3 points per game and was a 75.3 percent free throw shooter over her career.

A member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Bria is an avid runner who has completed three marathons. The native of Charleston, W. Va. has had her high school jersey retired by Charleston Catholic High School.

Assistant Coach Daniel Barber

3rd Season
Florida, 2012

Daniel Barber is in his third season as an assistant coach at Stetson University. He is also the program's recruiting coordinator.

Barber joined the Hatters from UNC Asheville where he served as an assistant coach in 2013-14. While there, Barber worked with Bulldog guards, enhancing their skills and development during team practice and individual workouts. He also assisted with recruiting, scouting, team academics, and team building activities.

Prior to his time at UNC Asheville, Barber served as a Graduate Assistant and Team Manager at his alma mater, the University of Florida. While at UF, Barber assisted the women's basketball coaching staff with scouting reports, player development and team travel. He was also responsible for conducting individual summer workouts with the team.

Barber graduated from Florida in 2012 with a Bachelor's degree in Nutrition with a specialization in Dietetics. He served as the Head Manager for women's basketball in 2011-12. He helped facilitate team practices, distribute equipment and assist with team travel responsibilities.

Barber earned his Master's Degree in Leadership Development from Florida in 2015. He also earned a minor in Sport Management.

Assistant Coach Otavio Battaglia

1st Season
São Paulo, 2004

International coaching veteran Otavio Battaglia begins his first season as an assistant coach at Stetson University.

Battaglia comes to Stetson from New Mexico Highlands University where served as an assistant coach in 2015-16. His responsibilities included player development, defensive coordinator, international recruiting, team travel, academic advising and community service activities. He also assisted with scouting reports and videos as well as developing team conditioning plans.

In 2014-15, Battaglia served as a graduate assistant and video coordinator for Missouri Valley Conference champion Wichita State Shockers, whose defense was ranked fourth in the NCAA for fewest points allowed per game. While there, Battaglia was responsible for live breakdown of game video, recruiting video, highlight tapes, team graphics and motivational videos. He worked with NCAA All-American and WNBA draftee Alex Harden.

A native of São Paulo, Brazil, Battaglia served as a scouting assistant for his native country at the 2014 FIBA Basketball World Cup in Spain. He helped the Brazil Men's National Team earn a second place finish in the group stage and the quarterfinal round appearance in the championship.

From 2013-14, Battaglia served as an assistant men's basketball coach for Score Basketball Academy in Raleigh, N.C. He was responsible for player development, coordinating practices, strength and conditioning, recruiting, team travel, scheduling, budgeting, academic advising, national and international recruiting, video coordination and scouting.

Prior to his arrival in the United States, Battaglia coached for eight seasons in upper level basketball development clubs in Spain. In 2012-13, he was the head women's coach of the Torrelodones Basketball Club of Primera Nacional in Torrelodones, Spain. He was responsible for all facets of the program and helped lead his team to the final four of the state tournament and saw two of his players move on to play at the college level in the United States.

For seven years from 2005-12, Battaglia served in numerous capacities with Club Estudiantes in Madrid, Spain. He achieved a combined seven state finals with the U18 and U16 teams, four appearances in the national tournament, and back-to-back national championships with the U20 team as an assistant coach. He was responsible for the player development of several professional prospects, including Lucas Nogueira (Toronto), Sebastian Sainz (Ole Miss), Ivan Cruz (Miami), Jacobo Díaz (UIP) and Juancho Hernangomez (Denver).

Battaglia graduated from the University of São Paulo in 2004 with a Bachelor's Degree in Sports Science. He received a Master in Association with the PhD Program from Polytechnical University of Madrid in 2008, and he is currently working on a PhD degree at the same institution. Battaglia anticipates completing a Master's Degree in Sport Management from Wichita State University in July.

Battaglia is certified as a National Level Coach of Basketball in Spain with a specialization in post players.

Assistant Coach Brittany Young

2nd Season
Francis Marion, 2008

Former South Carolina and Daytona State assistant Brittany Young begins her second season as an assistant coach at Stetson University.

Young comes to Stetson after two seasons at Daytona State College, where she served as the program's recruiting coordinator, director of player development, director of operations, academic coordinator, and strength and conditioning liaison. During her tenure, Young helped recruit and develop seven all-conference selections, including Brittney Chambers, an NJCAA All-American and the 2015 Mid-Florida Conference Player of the Year. The program also achieved its highest ranking in 2015 climbing to No. 10 in the national polls and No. 3 overall in the state of Florida. The Falcons went 23-8 on the season and claimed the Mid-Florida Conference Championship.

With Young serving as academic coordinator, the Falcons posted a team GPA of 3.0 or better in three out of four semesters. In 2014, Daytona State was recognized as having the highest team GPA of all NJCAA programs in the state of Florida. Young saw eight student-athletes earn their Associate of Arts degree including six who received full scholarships to continue their basketball careers at the NCAA level.

From 2011-13, Young served as a graduate assistant at the University of South Carolina under Olympic Gold Medalist Dawn Staley and her coaching staff. During her two seasons at South Carolina, the Gamecocks were nationally ranked and twice earned a berth to the NCAA Tournament. The team advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2012 and the second round of the tournament in 2013.

While at South Carolina, Young assisted with player development, scouting, game preparation, and academic enrichment. She also worked closely with the Director of Basketball Operations and assumed many operational duties. She obtained her master's degree in Sport and Entertainment Management in 2013.

Young has worked several basketball camps throughout the Southeast, serving in various capacities. Most recently she assisted with the University of South Carolina's team, elite, individual and Little Gamecock camps. She also spent three years as the camp director of the "Pearl Moore Fundamental Basketball Camp," which is organized by the All-time Career Scoring Leader in Women's Basketball History and Hall of Fame Inductee, Pearl Moore.

In 2011, Young was just one of 26 recipients of the NCAA Ethnic Minority and Women's Enhancement Postgraduate Scholarship for Careers in Athletics.

Prior to beginning her coaching career, Young was a CoSIDA Academic All-American and all-conference performer at Francis Marion University in Florence, S.C. She served as team captain all four years, twice earning team MVP honors. She is a member of the school's all-decade team and remains one of three players in FMU history to surpass 1,000 points and 500 assists in a career.

In addition to her success on the court, Young was President of the Student Athletic Advisory Council and a member of both Francis Marion University's and the Peach Belt Conference's Presidential Honor Rolls.

NOTES: 1) The Hatters played in the AIAW from 1977-1982. The NCAA began sponsoring women's basketball in 1981-82. The AIAW folded after one year of joint sponsorship. 2) While most of Stetson's home games have been played at the Edmunds Center, from the 1985-86 season to the 1988-89 season, the Hatters played some home games at the Ocean Center in Daytona Beach. 3) Stetson was a charter member of the New South Women's Athletic Conference (NSWAC) from 1985-86 to 1990-91. The Trans America Athletic Conference (TAAC) absorbed the NSWAC in Spring 1991. The TAAC changed its name to the Atlantic Sun Conference in June 2001.

IT STARTS WITH THE FUSE THAT THE GAME LIGHTS INSIDE US.
PASSION IS EXCHANGED BETWEEN THE COURT AND THE STANDS.
ENERGY BECOMES SYNERGY.
OUR UNCOMMON DESIRE BECOMES OUR COMMON GROUND.
BECAUSE THIS SEASON, IT'S ABOUT INTENSITY.
IT'S DRIVEN BY INNOVATION THAT ELEVATES, AND SPEED THAT WILL RISE.
THE GAME WILL BECOME FASTER, AND PRIDE WILL BURN HOTTER.
IN ARENAS ALL OVER THE COUNTRY,
INTENSITY WILL INSPIRE COLLEGE FANS
AND COLLEGE PLAYERS TO UNITE AS ONE.

Rankings

Stetson University again has earned national recognition for its rigorous academics; commitment to social mobility and service; and military friendliness by ranking among the top universities in recent national surveys. U.S. News, Washington Monthly, MilitaryFriendly.com and others name Stetson a top school.

Leadership

The university is an independent, private university managed by a 37-member Board of Trustees. As a collective body, the trustees hold the authority and responsibility to ensure the fulfillment of the institution's mission. They are also ultimately responsible for the fiscal health of the university.

Each college or school has a board of advisors made up of professionals in areas relevant to the school or college. The Board of Trustees selects and appoints the president, and the president in turn hires administrative staff to govern the day-to-day operations of the institution.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Cornell, 1972

Eighth Year

Stetson University entered a new era of leadership in July 2009 when Dr. Wendy B. Libby became the university's ninth president. With a broad career in higher education and private industry, she is building on Stetson's values-centered heritage and tradition of academic excellence and community engagement.

Libby is leading a comprehensive strategic plan focusing innovation to drive Stetson from success to significance – through reinforcement of academic excellence, establishment of a Student Success program, campus infrastructure improvements and growth in recruitment and retention. She spearheaded a major landscaping and classroom improvement project and development of a DeLand Campus Plan as a guide for future growth. She has taken a progressive approach to residential life at Stetson, including introduction of pet-friendly residence halls and purchase of an apartment complex for student housing.

Athletics has grown dramatically under her leadership. Along with Director of Athletics Jeff Altier, Libby was integral in bringing football back to Stetson for the first time since 1956. Coming with the return of football was the construction of a $6.7 million, 25,000-square foot athletic training facility, which opened in August, 2012. Other additions include Division I women's lacrosse and sand volleyball programs, a robust Club Sports program, and a cooperative effort with the city of DeLand to renovate Spec Martin Stadium for the return of Hatter Football in 2013.

Dr. Libby is active in Central Florida life and, in 2010, was appointed to the Mainstreet Community Bank Board of Directors. She is an honorary member of the Rotary Club of DeLand and is a Paul Harris Fellow. In 2011 and 2013, Dr. Libby was named to The Volusia/Flagler Business Report's list of "Influential Women in Business." In 2014, she received a Women Who Mean Business Award from the Orlando Business Journal and was also named one of the "Top 55 Most Influential" in Volusia and Flagler counties by MyCoast Magazine.

Libby served as president of Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., from 2003-09, and as vice president for business affairs and chief financial officer at Furman University, Greenville, S.C., from 1995 to 2003. Her administrative and teaching experience in higher education began in 1980 at institutions including Westbrook College (now part of the University of New England), the University of Hartford, the University of Connecticut Health Center, The Ohio State University and Cornell University.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Libby earned her doctorate in Educational Administration from the University of Connecticut in 1994. Her undergraduate degree, in Biology with a concentration in Genetics, is from Cornell University. She earned an MBA, with a concentration in Finance, from Cornell's Johnson Graduate School of Management.

In honor of her outstanding leadership, Libby received the 2007 Athena Award from the Columbia (Mo.) Chamber of Commerce Women's Network for her support of women in realizing their full leadership potential.

She and her husband, Dr. Richard M. Libby, a former college president, have two sons, Glenn and wife Ginger, and Gregg and wife Lori, four grandchildren, a great-granddaughter, and two Labrador Retrievers. An avid reader, she enjoys cooking and entertaining.

Jeff Altier

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Stetson, 1982

Jeff Altier, a 32-year veteran of the Stetson University athletic department, is in his 20th year as Director of Athletics. During his tenure, Altier has earned a reputation as an outstanding fundraiser and a leader with an eye on the future, and is noted for his active participation in the NCAA governance structure.

Altier, captain of the nationally-ranked 1982 Hatter baseball team, earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Stetson. Upon wrapping up his Stetson baseball career, he spent two years as a player/coach developing the sport in Perth, Australia. He then returned to Stetson as an assistant coach before being promoted to Ticket Manager, Director of Athletic Promotions, and then Associate Athletic Director. In these rolls, he spearheaded the department's development efforts as well as oversaw athletic marketing and promotions, concessions and travel coordination. He was named Director of Athletics in 1996.

Altier also served as Tournament Manager for the NCAA Division I Southeast First and Second Round Men's basketball tournament hosted by Stetson in 1993 and 1996 at the Orlando Arena, and as Tournament Director for the 1999, 2004, and 2014 tournament.

Stetson has taken great strides in the area of gender equity under Altier, increasing scholarships, participation opportunities and staffing for women's athletics. The unprecedented success of the women's tennis, golf, soccer, basketball and softball teams in conference competition during Altier's tenure are evidence of his commitment to women's athletics. In fact, under his direction Stetson's women's and men's teams have won an impressive 15 conference championships.

A hallmark of Altier's professional career was the building of Stetson's $4.5 million baseball facility, Melching Field at Conrad Park. Built in conjunction with the City of DeLand, Melching Field is regarded as one of the nation's premiere college baseball facilities. Altier then turned his attention to construction of an on-campus softball facility, which broke ground in 2002 and was ready for competition in February of 2003. Patricia Wilson Field has been named Collegiate Softball Field of the Year six times. He was also instrumental in securing new state-of-the-art field lighting for both the softball and soccer fields in 2005. Under his guidance, the Athletic Department has also seen the addition of the Wilson Athletic Center, a $ 1.5 million health and wellness facility for the use of Stetson student-athletes.

Stetson athletics has continued to grow under Altier's guidance. Three new sports have recently been added - sand volleyball started competition in the spring of 2012, while women's lacrosse will start in the spring of 2013 and football will return in the fall of 2013. The program is also growing in terms of staffing and facilities, with construction complete on the $6.7 million, 25,000 square-foot Athletic Training Facility that houses offices, locker rooms, and sports medicine facilities for the football, women's lacrosse, and men's and women's soccer programs.

Altier's leadership has extended beyond campus, as he has taken on Atlantic Sun Conference leadership roles, chairing many committees and serving as conference vice-president. Additionally, he has served on the National Association of College Directors of Athletics Division IAAA board of directors, the NCAA A.E.C. Cabinet and is currently a member of the prestigious NCAA Leadership Council. Locally he has served as president of the DeLand Rotary Club, vice-president of the DeLand Sports Redevelopment Association, and is a graduate of Leadership DeLand and Leadership Orlando. He is currently a member of the board of directors of the Central Florida Sports Commission. Altier was honored as the West Volusia Sports person of the Year for 2004. In 2011 Altier was recognized by his peers in the National Association of Collegiate Director of Athletics as the Under Armour Southeast Region Division I Athletic Director of the Year.

Altier's family includes wife, Sarah (Booker) (Stetson B.A. '82, M.Ed. '96), and children Heath (Stetson M.B.A. '09), Brianne, and Garrett.

The Edmunds Center

The Stetson women's basketball team has called the J. Ollie Edmunds Center home since 1975, and the Hatters have won over 300 games in their 41 years on their home court. Entering the 2016-17 season, the Hatters were 70-9 over their last 79 games at home, including 14-1 home records in 2012-13 and 2013-14.

Also home to Stetson men's basketball and volleyball teams, the Edmunds Center houses coaches and staff offices, locker rooms, an equipment room, a ticket office, and a VIP suite.

The Edmunds Center was home to the men's 1991 and 1996 Trans America Athletic Conference Tournaments as well as the women's tournament in 1997. It also served as training camp site for the Orlando Magic of the National Basketball Association in 1992 and 1993, and hosted the NCAA Volleyball Tournament First Round in 1996.

The Hatters hosted the first round of the WNIT in 2015 and the WBI in 2016.

Mark Wateska

DIRECTOR OF STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Penn State, 1989

A veteran strength coach with more than 20 years of experience at the highest levels of college athletics, Wateska came to Stetson from Indiana University where he served as Assistant Athletic Director for Strength and Conditioning from 2009-14. While in Bloomington he designed the Hoosiers 25,000 square foot Student-Athlete Development Center and assisted in the development of the IU Excellence Academy.

Prior to his promotion to Assistant AD, Wateska served at IU as Director of Athletic Performance from 2002-09.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Wateska played college football at Penn State for legendary coach Joe Paterno. During his time with the Nittany Lions he competed in three bowl games including the 1986 Orange Bowl, where Penn State lost in the national title game, and the 1987 Fiesta Bowl, where the Lions defeated heavily favored Miami to win the national title.

After receiving his degree in Exercise and Sport Science in 1989, he began his career as a strength coach at his alma mater, working as a graduate assistant coach from 1989-91 while at the same time working on his Master of Science in Exercise and Sport Science.

Upon completing his second degree, Wateska served as an intern with the Philadelphia Eagles in the Player Personnel Department in 1991 before moving to Boston College as Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach where he worked with the Eagles' nationally ranked hockey program as well as the football and men's and women's basketball teams among other sports.

Wateska got his first opportunity to serve as a head strength coach in 1994 when he took over the program at the University of Maine as the Black Bears' first full-time strength coach.

After a short tenure in Orono, Wateska attracted the attention of Stanford University. He took over the Cardinal strength and conditioning program in January of 1995, overseeing all 33 intercollegiate sports, with direct oversight of the football, women's basketball and softball programs. He was named the Pac 10 Strength and Conditioning Professional of the Year for 1995-96 by the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He was promoted to Assistant AD for Strength and Conditioning at Stanford in 2001.

Wateska and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Julia (15) and Cameron (11).

ASUN Conference

The new identity of the ASUN Conference reflects our position as a premier NCAA Division I conference. Contemporary, but designed to stand the test of time, this identity embraces the future.

The rising sun within the "A" represents hope and optimism for tomorrow. It also represents the brilliance of our student-athletes, who are at the heart of all we do.

As sure as the sun will rise, the ASUN will be leading the way.

WE CAN IMPACT

Our success resides in the impact we make in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Making a difference counts.

- 99 percent of ASUN teams cleared the NCAA's academic benchmark in the annual Academic Progress Report.
- ASUN Men's and Women's Basketball teams combined for 12 postseason wins, a new league record in 2015-16. FGCU's men's team posted the league's fourth NCAA victory since 2013. On the women's side, FGCU, USC Upstate and Stetson combined for eight postseason wins in 2015-16.
- FGCU's women's soccer team earned the ASUN's first NCAA Postseason victory since 2004. The Eagles defeated No. 22 South Florida 2-1 in the first round of the 2015 NCAA Tournament
- This past winter, the ASUN's eight SAAC groups distributed a total of 2,500 blankets to organizations benefiting families, veterans, children and animals who needed a special touch during the holiday season. SAAC groups matched the number of blankets with 2,500 cans of food.

WE CAN CONNECT

We are united as a community of students, athletes, coaches, faculty, administrators, staff and fans.

- For the second season in a row, all Men's and Women's Basketball conference games were streamed live on the WatchESPN platform. Championships for seven other sports were produced and broadcast across ASUN campuses as well, including the first Beach Volleyball Championship broadcast.
- North Florida's Men's Golf head coach Scott Schroeder was named to the NCAA Men's Golf Committee, serving until August 2020. Stetson's Senior Associate Director and SWA Alicia Queally was named to the prestigious NCAA Pathway Program in January 2016.
- ASUN Men's Basketball teams played in front of 214,851 fans during the 2016-17 season. For the fourth straight season, the ASUN Men's Basketball Championship Final was played in front of a sell out crowd.
- The ASUN continued to lead the industry with creative and innovative social media campaigns in 2015-16, increasing impressions by 40% across multiple platforms.

WE CAN RISE

We have a history of firsts and remain committed to elevating our student-athletes and bettering our future.

- The 2016 ASUN Men's Basketball Championship final saw a record growth of 139 percent in viewership across the WatchESPN platform. FGCU defeated Stetson 80-78 in overtime.
- Whitney Knight of FGCU became the first player in ASUN history selected in the first round of the WNBA draft when the Los Angeles Sparks chose her with the 15th overall pick.
- For the first time in ASUN Men's Soccer history, two players were taken in the first round of the MLS SuperDraft. FGCU's Rodrigo Saravia went to Columbus Crew SC, while North Florida's Alex Morrell was drafted by the Chicago Fire.
- Lipscomb Men's Golf earned its first trip to the NCAA Men's Golf Regional in 2016. The Bisons were selected as an at-large team to the Tuscaloosa Regional, after being ranked near the bottom of NCAA Division I Men's Golf only four years ago.

Headquartered in Macon, Ga., the ASUN footprint reaches into seven of the top media markets in the Southeast. The ASUN includes a blend of the most prestigious and dynamic private and public institutions in the region: Florida Gulf Coast University, Jacksonville University, Kennesaw State University, Lipscomb University, New Jersey Institute of Technology, University of North Florida, University of South Carolina Upstate and Stetson University.
