How the Hatters Got Here

Stetson won a school-record 24 games overall and went 14-4 in Atlantic Sun Conference play, good for a second-place finish in the regular season. In the A-Sun tournament, Stetson defeated no. 7 ETSU 66-55 in the quarterfinals, knocked off no. 3 and tournament host Mercer 67-52 in the semifinals, then rallied from a 15-point second-half deficit to shock top-seeded FGCU 70-64 and capture the A-Sun crown.

The Hatters Nickname

The unlikely combination of a famous hat manufacturer and a university produced a novel nickname for Stetson University. The athletic teams are called "Hatters," reflecting the university's association with John B. Stetson, maker of the well-known Stetson hats. It all began in 1883 when Henry DeLand founded the DeLand Academy. Three years later, after a disastrous freeze affecting the citrus industry left DeLand in financial distress, Stetson, who had a winter home in DeLand, became interested in the school. At Deland's request, Stetson was made chairman of the Board of Trustees in 1889 and the university was renamed in his honor. Stetson University fielded the first football team in Florida in 1901. The name "Hatter" was used then and is still in use today.

- The Hatters need two more blocks to set the school single-season record (which currently stands at 128, set in 2010-11).

Dynamic Trio

Stetson's trio of Victoria McGowan, Shanasa Sanders, and Sasha Sims combined for 142 of the team's 203 points (70%) in the Atlantic Sun tournament. They combined for 53 of the team's 66 points against ETSU, 48 of the team's 67 points vs. Mercer, and 41 of the team's 70 points vs. FGCU. McGowan and Sims were named to the A-Sun all-tournament team.

Dynamic Duo

Stetson's senior backcourt duo of Victoria McGowan (16.0) and Shanasa Sanders (14.0) are averaging a combined 30.0 points per game, the most of any duo in the Atlantic Sun. The last Hatter duo to average over 30 points per game was Nefertiti Walker (21.5) and Janene Maclin (8.7) in 2005-06 (30.2 ppg combined).

Best Class Ever

Stetson's senior class is the winningest four-year class in the history of the women's basketball program. Since the start of the 2009-10 season, the Hatters have won 73 games. Ashley Dennis, Janelle Mills, and Simone Taylor are each in their fourth season with the Hatters. Victoria McGowan also came to Stetson in 2009 as a sophomore transfer but sat out the 2009-10 season.

Atlantic Sun Statistical Leaders

The Hatters currently rank among the top three Atlantic Sun statistical leaders in nearly every category except rebounding. The Hatters lead the league in field goal percentage (.440), and three-point field goal percentage (.332), they rank second in scoring offense, scoring margin, blocks, and fewest turnovers, and they rank third in scoring defense, assists, steals, and free throw percentage. See page 6 for more.

NCAA Statistical Leaders

In the Mar. 17 release of NCAA national statistics, the Hatters ranked 19th in the nation in fewest turnovers per game, 20th in field goal pct., 40th in win-loss percentage, 42nd in scoring, and 59th in three-point field goal pct. Victoria McGowan ranked 12th in the nation three-point field goal pct. (.416). See page 6 for more.

Small Line-Up

One of the few statistical categories in which Stetson does not rank at the top of the league is rebounding. With a line-up that features six regulars standing 5-10 or under, the Hatters emphasize the importance of team rebounding - everyone must crash the boards and box out. 5-foot-5 Victoria McGowan is the team's leading rebounder with 6.9 rpg, and 5-foot-7 Shanasa Sanders ranks second with 6.6 rebounds per game. The Hatters are 13-1 this season when they outrebound their opponent.

Points in the Paint Matter

Coach Lynn Bria has said many times this season how important the points-in-the-paint statistic is in determining the winner (Stetson is 21-1 when leading in this category). The Hatters tenaciously guarded the interior against FGCU in the A-Sun championship, and outscored the Eagles 30-20 in the paint. Although FGCU hit nine three-pointers in the first half, the Eagles hit just two in the second half. The Hatters stormed back from 15-down to win, 70-64.

Triple-Doubles

After recording an NCAA-best three triple-doubles a year ago, Victoria McGowan picked up her fourth career triple-double against Lipscomb on Feb. 18. McGowan joins Baylor's Brittney Griner (5) and San Diego State's Chelsea Hopkins (4) as the only three active players in Division I with four or more career triple-doubles. Stetson's eight triple-double performances all-time is tied with Kansas State and Stanford for the most in NCAA Women's Basketball history.

Stetson has three active career 1000-point scorers on the roster. Victoria McGowan has scored 1534 points (1518 with Stetson), Shanasa Sanders has scored 1172 points (847 with Stetson), and Sasha Sims has scored 1109 points, all with Stetson.

Dominant at Home

The Hatters went 14-1 at home this season and were dominant almost every game. In the 600 minutes played at the Edmunds Center this year, Stetson trailed amazingly for only 54:12 (35:24 of that came in one game - the loss to FGCU). Eight times this season Stetson did not trail in a home game at all.

A-Sun Awards

For the first time in school history, the Stetson women's basketball team landed three student-athletes on the Atlantic Sun all-conference first and second teams, the league announced with its annual postseason awards on March 5. Senior guard Victoria McGowan (Inkster, Mich.) earned first-team all-conference honors for the second straight year, while senior Shanasa Sanders (Jacksonville, Fla.) and junior Sasha Sims (Fayetteville, Ga.) were each selected to the all-conference second-team.

Lynn Bria

HEAD COACH

Charleston (WV), 1990

5th Season at Stetson

Lynn Bria is in her fifth season at the helm of Stetson women's basketball in 2012-13 after a second straight excellent campaign in 2011-12. Under Bria, the Hatters won a school record 23 games and advanced to the postseason for the second year in a row, participating in the WNIT for the first time in school history. Three players earned All-Atlantic Sun honors including A-Sun Player of the Year and All-Tournament Team selection Victoria McGowan, who led the nation with three triple-doubles. Also honored were Second Team All-Atlantic Sun forward Sasha Sims and A-Sun All-Freshman Team forward Cherisse Burris.

Bria's 2010-11 Hatters won 20 games for the first time in 10 seasons, captured their third Atlantic Sun Conference tournament championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in school history and first time since 2005.

Stetson's turnaround under Bria from 6-24 to 20-13 (+12.5 games) was the second largest improvement in NCAA Division I women's basketball. Honors that came to members of the team included A-Sun Tournament MVP (Victoria McGowan), A-Sun All-Tournament Team (Tierra Brown, Sasha Sims), Second Team All-Atlantic Sun (McGowan), A-Sun All-Freshman Team (Sims), A-Sun Player of the Week (Natasha Graboski) and A-Sun Newcomer of the Week (McGowan twice, Sims). Graboski went on to sign a professional contract with Alexandria of Romania's Division 1 League in the summer of 2011.

In 2009-10 Bria led the Hatters to their seventh consecutive A-Sun tournament appearance. In her first season at Stetson, Bria made an immediate impact on the recruiting trail as her 2009-10 incoming class was ranked by Michael T. White's noted scouting service All-Star Girls Report as the best in the Atlantic Sun and in the top third of all NCAA Division I teams.

Bria has coached women's basketball for 20 years with 14 seasons of Division I head coaching experience to her credit at UCF, Ohio University and Stetson. In addition to coaching, she has extensive classroom experience at the university level and is committed to developing young women both athletically and academically.

Prior to joining the Hatters, Bria spent the previous two seasons as an assistant coach at top-level programs West Virginia (2006-07) and most recently the University of Miami. Her excellent recruiting skills led to the Hurricanes signing a Top 25 incoming class according to recruiting experts at www.HoopGurlz.com. With WVU, Bria served as recruiting coordinator in addition to her on-court coaching duties. Her leadership helped the Mountaineers achieve one of their best seasons in school history, which featured an at-large bid to and second round appearance in the NCAA Tournament as well as the second-largest turnaround in W-L record in Big East Conference history (15-16 to 21-11 overall and from 4-12 to 11-5 in Big East games).

From 1999-2006, Bria was the head coach at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio. She is second all-time in career wins at Ohio and was the first coach in Bobcats history to sign a recruit that would become Mid-American Conference Freshman of the Year.

Prior to taking the position at Ohio, Bria led UCF for three seasons from 1996-99. Her final Golden Knights team in 1998-99 was the TAAC (now Atlantic Sun) regular season and tournament champions and appeared in the NCAA Tournament. For her efforts, Bria was named the 1998-99 TAAC Coach of the Year. In just three seasons, she ranked second in career wins at UCF.

Bria's first head coaching position came at Division II Texas Woman's University in Denton, Texas for three seasons from 1993-96. At the age of 24, Bria was the fourth-youngest head coach in the country when she was hired. She coached the team, coordinated fundraising and taught in the Kinesiology department in addition to serving on the NCAA Division II Tournament regional selection committee. Her Pioneer squads won more games each year of her tenure than the one previously.

Her first three years out of college at the University of Charleston (W. Va.) were spent on the coaching staffs at Marshall (where she obtained her Master's degree in 1992) and Radford, where she helped lead the Highlanders to the Big South regular season and tournament titles in 1992-93.

A standout performer for the Charleston Golden Eagles, the Class of 1990 graduate was inducted into her alma mater's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003. She scored 1,146 points in her career, averaging 10.3 points per game and was a 75.3 percent free throw shooter over her career.

CHAMPIONS! Stetson Captures A-Sun Title

As Stetson finished its pregame warm-ups Saturday and headed to bench for player introductions, the pep band, cheerleaders, and Hatter fans all started chanting, "I believe that we will win!"

The players must have believed it, too.

Stetson pulled off a victory for the ages, rallying from a 15-point, second-half deficit to shock top-seed and undefeated FGCU 70-64, capturing the 2013 Atlantic Sun Conference Championship and the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

"This is so unbelievable and I never felt anything like this," sophomore C.J. Coddington said during the postgame celebration. "I am so excited and so proud of my teammates. We couldn't have done this without each other and our coaches."

Sasha Sims broke a 64-64 tie with a 10-foot jumper to the left of the lane with 21 seconds remaining, and Cherisse Burris rebounded a missed three-point attempt by Joyce Iamstrong in the closing seconds and the celebration was on.

"I heard the crowd and the bench went crazy, but I was just trying to put the ball in basket," Sims said. "I was trying to find the open man but couldn't find anyone, so I knew I had no choice but to shoot it and make it."

The Hatters played tenacious defense in the first half inside the paint, but FGCU knocked down nine three-pointers to take a 40-27 lead at halftime.

"We knew we were going to have to fight," Stetson head coach Lynn Bria said. "We knew it was going to be a battle. I just felt like if we could stay close then we would have a real chance to win the game."

"I felt like the start of the second half was a real key," Bria added. "The last couple times we played them they jumped out on us in the start of the second half. We just hung in there. We got stops when we needed it. I'm just proud of our entire team. It really was a total team effort."

Trailing 56-42 with 13:13 to go, the Hatters went on 9-0 run to cut the deficit to three. Sims blocked Sarah Hansen twice on back-to-back shot attempts, then ran the floor and finished off a three-point play.

The chants of "Let's Go Hats!" continued to grow louder from the crowd.

"It helped a lot to hear that," senior Shanasa Sanders said. "Coach talked to us before the game about people not believing in us, but when we heard the band and the Stetson fans behind us, we knew we had to do it. In the huddle we said, 'It was now or never'."

The teams traded points down the stretch until Coddington tied the game with a free throw at the 1:33 mark. Burris put Stetson in front for the first time since early in the game with 54 seconds left.

"I am so excited," Burris said after the game. "This is my first time winning conference. I finished second every time in state (high school), and I couldn't be any happier. I love my team."

The Eagles (27-6) weren't done as Iamstrong, the tournament's MVP, hit a tough shot while falling down to knot the game at 64. It would be the last points for FGCU.

Sims knocked down the go-ahead jumper and Burris and Sanders hit four final free throws to cap the improbable comeback. The Eagles had won 41 consecutive conference games (including the postseason) over the past two seasons, but that streak ended Saturday.

Sims led four Hatters in double figures with 15 points. Victoria McGowan and Burris each scored 14, and Sanders chipped in 12. Stetson outscored FGCU 43-24 in the second half.

"It's an incredible feeling," said McGowan, who along with Sims was selected to the all-tournament team. "It was the championship game and we knew we had to come out with a win."

Stetson (24-8), which won its school-record 24th game of the season, will be heading to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in school history, and for the second time in the last three years. The Hatters will find out its destination on Monday March 18 in the tournament selection show on ESPN.

Hatter Seniors Go Out as Champions

They got to taste the thrill of victory two years ago, and the heartbreak of defeat last year. For the Hatter senior class, they will one day be able to remember the night they pulled together to overcome adversity and huge odds in order to close their careers as conference champions.

"I am so happy," said senior Janelle Mills, who played in her 129th career game. "This is so important because it's our last year, and to share it with people who have been here since my freshman year is so special. I am just so happy to go out as a champion. It is so amazing."

Fellow senior Ashley Dennis had a strong outing in the championship game, collecting eight points and three rebounds while drawing a charging call against the Eagles' Sarah Hansen.

"Words cannot express what I am feeling," Dennis said. "We have been through so much and we have made it again. This is the best way I ever could have imagined to end my senior year. I am so, so excited."

Shanasa Sanders had a feeling back in February that the Hatters might just finish the season on a high note.

"I remember telling Victoria (McGowan) after the second time we lost to (FGCU) that maybe it was a sign that we were saving our best for last," Sanders said. "The third time was the charm, we stuck together today and got a win."

McGowan, one of the most decorated athletes in Stetson history, has now helped lead the Hatters to two NCAA Tournaments in the past three years.

"After losing last year, coming back and winning means so much for the seniors, and everybody else on the team," McGowan said. "Everybody on the team just believed, and that's what got us the win."

When asked how special the senior class was and how much they meant to her, head coach Lynn Bria started to get choked up.

"I don't know if I can do that," Bria said. "They mean everything to me. I get a front row seat to see them all the time. I don't pay for it. I just get to sit there and watch some great basketball. We have a lot of fun together off the court, and that's what I am going to miss."

"They have meant everything to me, they are a very special class, and I don't know if I will ever be able to experience it again as a coach," Bria added. "They are just that special."

Sasha Sims's Second-Half Effort Lifts Stetson

She only received one vote for tournament Most Valuable Player, but without her heroic second-half effort against Florida Gulf Coast in Saturday's championship game, the Hatters would never have been crowned A-Sun champs.

Junior Sasha Sims scored 12 of her team-high 15 points in the final 20 minutes, recorded a career-high five blocks, and scored the game-winning basket with 21 seconds remaining to lift Stetson to an improbable 70-64 victory over the Eagles.

Even more impressive about Sims's performance was that she spent nearly the entire first half on the bench, after picking up her second foul just four minutes into the game.

"After I got in foul trouble I just tried to stay positive," Sims said. "I was cheering them on from the bench. You can't become selfish and just focus on what you have going on. I just kept focusing on the team, and eventually the game came back around to me."

Sims began the second half by hitting her 100th career three-pointer, cutting the FGCU lead from 15 down to 12. An offensive rebound and putback at the 16:25 mark trimmed the lead to 11.

The block party began with a little under nine minutes remaining when Sims stuffed back-to-back shot attempts by Sarah Hansen. Sims then ran down the floor and recieved a pass from Victoria McGowan before hitting a lay-up and converting a three-point play.

"Those blocked shots are momentum shifts," head coach Lynn Bria said. "I told her just stay and help as much as you can, because we knew they were going to isolate and try and drive. We tried to keep her around the basket as much as we could and she did a great job."

Sims added three more blocks over the next four minutes to keep the Hatters within striking distance, then with the score tied at 64 in the closing seconds, Sims hit a 10-foot jumper to the left of the lane to give Stetson a lead it would not relinquish.

"I heard the crowd and the bench went crazy, but I was just trying to put the ball in basket," Sims said. "I was trying to find the open man but couldn't find anyone, so I knew I had no choice but to shoot it and make it."

Sims, along with McGowan, was selected to the all-tournament team. However, personal accolades took a back seat for Sims to the importance of winning the championship for her teammates.

"This morning I woke up and I texted (Shanasa Sanders and McGowan) and told them we were going to win the championship because they deserved it," Sims said. "I felt like I had 40 minutes left in me and that was what I was going to give, no overtime, none of that. We were going to win the game period."

Win it, Stetson did, thanks in large part to Sims.

Stetson Falls To #1 LSU in NCAA First Round

Stetson fell to overall No. 1 seed LSU 70-36 in the First Round of the 2005 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship Sunday afternoon at the Thompson-Boling Arena.

The 16th-seeded Hatters end the year 17-14 after earning their first-ever trip to the postseason tournament.

'We were up against a very good basketball team today, and LSU, with their size, quickness, length and athleticism, had very good match-ups at every position,' said head coach Dee Romine. 'We knew it was going to be a tough game today. I thought we had some good shots early in the game, but we just were not able to make some shots and that put a lot of pressure on us defensively.'

Stetson went back and forth with the Lady Tigers for the first 10 minutes, taking two leads before the 15:00 mark. It was short-lived as the Lady Tigers took over, using a 16-4 run during the next eight minutes to pull ahead 24-12.

'I thought about the eight-minute mark of the first half, that was really when they dominated us at every phase of the game,' said Romine. 'We were just struggling to enter into our offensive sets. We typically are able to initiate at the arch, but we were five steps beyond the arch, which obviously affected our shots and our spacing on the floor.'

Stetson struggled to fight back for the final minutes of the half as LSU took a 22-point lead into the intermission, 41-19.

Stetson shot a season-low 24.1 percent compared to LSU's 38.1 percent from the floor. The Lady Tigers also outshot the Hatters from the free throw line, 76.9 (20-26) percent to 60 percent (6-10).

Senior Kristy Brown (Marietta, Ga.) led all scorers with 17 points while pulling down eight boards. Walker helped out with 13 points and MacLin added eight rebounds for the afternoon.

'It means a lot just to make it to the NCAA Tournament, but it means a lot more to make it with the team that I am on because the group of girls I play with are amazing,' said Brown. 'I am so fortunate to wear this uniform and get a college education. I can't really tell you what is going through my head. We have competed against the best. You can say we lost to LSU, but it still hurts.'

'We have said this all along, she (Kristy Brown) has been the heart and soul of our ball club for four years. I have never had a player that has practiced every day the way that Kristy Brown competed for us,' said Romine.

#4 Tennessee Too Much For Stetson

The top-seeded and fourth-ranked Tennessee Lady Volunteers (32-2) showed the form that has landed the program eight national championships with a 99-34 win over 16th-seeded Stetson (20-13) in the first round of the NCAA Tournament on Saturday at UT's Thompson-Boling Arena. Senior guard Tierra Brown (Orlando, Fla.), sophomore guard Victoria McGowan (Inkster, Mich.) and senior center Natasha Graboski (Upper Sandusky, Ohio) led the Hatters with seven points each.

The Hatters fought bravely early, trailing the SEC regular season and tournament champions 10-6 at the first media timeout, but the Lady Vols put an end to all hopes of a stunner with a 23-3 run before the next media break arrived.

Tennessee led 55-20 at halftime and continued to use its massive size advantage to bury the Hatters on the glass and in the post. Tennessee out-rebounded Stetson 63-31 in the game, shot 55.7 percent (39-70) and out-scored the Hatters 52-14 in the paint.

Stetson was held without a double-figure scorer for the first time this season, finding no way to score against a Lady Vols lineup with eight players standing six feet or taller. SEC Player of the Year Shekinna Stricklen scored 15 points to lead Tennessee; Glory Johnson (14 points, 10 rebounds), Angie Bjorklund (13 points) and Alyssia Brewer (15 points) also reached double figures.

The Atlantic Sun Conference champion Hatters return seven of 11 letterwinners from today's game next season including McGowan (Second Team All-Atlantic Sun and A-Sun Tournament MVP) and freshman forward Sasha Sims (A-Sun All-Freshman Team, A-Sun All-Tournament Team.)
